World War I

By the Numbers

Count the Days

- For Germany, France Great Britain, and Russia, the war began on August 3, 1914
- For the United States, the war began on April 5, 1917
- The war ended for Russia on March 3, 1917
- The war ended for Great Britain, France, Germany, and the Unites States on Nov. 11, 1918
- How many days were each of the nations at war?

Deaths per day

▸ If the following suffered these losses,
  ◦ Germany lost   2,050,897
  ◦ France lost   1,397,800
  ◦ Great Britain lost   885,138
  ◦ Russia lost   1,811,000
  ◦ United States lost   116,708

  ◦ On average, how many men died, per day, for each nation?